

December 2005

CURRICULUM VITAE

D. Kim Fuller, Ph.D., ABPP
Director, University of Miami Psychological Services Center
Clinical Associate Professor of Psychology

5665 Ponce de Leon Blvd., Suite 213
Coral Gables, FL 33146-0726
W: (305) 284-4265 x2
FAX: (305) 284-1700
kfuller@miami.edu

CERTIFICATION AND LICENSURE

Board Certified in Clinical Psychology, American Board of Professional Psychology, May 2001
Psychology License: Florida PY 4602, since December 1991

EDUCATION

- Internship      Veterans Administration Outpatient Clinic, Los Angeles, California
(APA Accredited), 1981 – 1982
- Ph. D.            University of Miami, Florida 1982, Clinical Psychology
(APA Accredited)
- M.S.              University of Miami, Florida, 1979, Clinical Psychology
- B.A.              Hunter College, CUNY, 1977, Summa Cum Laude, Psychology and Communications

POSTGRADUATE

Clinical Fellow San Fernando Valley Child Guidance Clinic, Northridge, California, 1982 – 1983

HONORS AND AWARDS

Diplomate, International Association of Behavioral Medicine, Counseling and Psychotherapy, in Professional Psychotherapy, awarded May 2005
Diplomate in Clinical Psychology, American Board of Professional Psychology,
Awarded May 2001
Superior Performance Award, VA Outpatient Clinic, 1988
NIMH Postdoctoral Fellow, 1982 – 1983
Maytag Fellow, University of Miami, 1980
Phi Kappa Phi, University of Miami, 1980
Phi Beta Kappa, Hunter College, CUNY, 1977

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS AND ACTIVITY

Site visitor for APA to University of Rochester Counseling Center's internship program, August 2005
Member, University of Miami Faculty Senate Women and Minorities Committee, 2005 – 2006
Member, Association of Directors in Psychology Training Clinics (ADPTC) since 1999
Chair, Mentoring Committee, ADPTC, 2005 to present
Organized and hosted convention of ADPTC in Miami Beach, February 2004
Chair, ADPTC Program Committee 2004 – 2005
Member, University of Miami Faculty Senate Student Affairs Committee, 2004 – 05
Key Psychologist, Florida Psychological Association, Fall 2003
Chair, Dade County Psychological Association Ethics Committee, since 2002
Fellow, American Academy of Clinical Psychology, since October 2001
Member, EMDR International Association, since 1997
Member, Florida Psychological Association, since 1992
Member, National Register of Health Service Providers, since 1986
Member, Divisions 12, 35, and 42, American Psychological Association, since 1982
Editorial Consultant, Patient Care Magazine, 1984 – 1987

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

9/99 – Present	Director, University of Miami Psychological Services Center; Clinical Associate Professor in Department of Psychology Manage the operation of the UM Psychology Department training clinic, a low-cost mental health clinic that provides psychotherapy and assessment services to children and adults; coordinate practicum training at the clinic and provide supervision to graduate students; conduct a psychotherapy case conference every Fall and Spring semester; teach a graduate level therapy-preparation course every Spring; provide psychotherapy for individuals, couples and families. Specialties include: recovery from trauma, recovery from rape and incest, eating disorders, sexual orientation and gender identity, divorce process issues, couples therapy, psychotherapy for Bipolar and other mood disorders.
9/91 – 8/99	Clinical Psychologist, University of Miami Counseling Center; Adjunct Assistant Professor in Department of Psychology Individual, group and couples therapy with college students; crisis intervention and response; Level 2 EMDR practitioner; outreach activities to the campus community; supervision of interns and practicum students; Coordinator of Sexual Assault Response Team; Member, Advisory Board, Women's Resource Center; consultation with residence coordinators, student health providers and other members of the campus community.

9/88 – 7/91

Clinical Psychologist, Kaiser Permanente Medical Center
Woodland Hills, California

Coordinated practicum training program for psychology graduate students; provided individual and group psychotherapy to adults and older adolescents, emphasizing time-limited treatment approaches; ran a short-term group to reduce binge eating; ran a group for incest survivors; provided psychological assessment and consultation services; helped to develop and administer a program to reduce the use of sedative-hypnotic medications by medical and psychiatric patients

3/86 – 5/90

Private Practice, Sherman Oaks, California

Individual psychotherapy, emphasizing ongoing, insight-oriented treatment approaches; time-limited workshops for binge eaters.

8/83 – 8/88

Clinical Psychologist, VA Outpatient Clinic, Los Angeles, California;
Adjunct Associate Professor at Fuller Graduate School of Psychology

Individual, group, marital and family therapy with veterans and their families; stress management, weight management, and health education workshops with veterans, families, and clinic staff; supervision of psychology interns; consultation with Vietnam Veteran's Outreach Centers and with medical services; Equal Employment Opportunity counselor; member of AIDS education committee.

9/82 – 8/83

Postdoctoral Fellow, San Fernando Valley Child Guidance Clinic

Individual and group psychotherapy with children and adolescents; group therapy for divorcing mothers of preschool children; supervision of a master's level practicum student; consultation with interns; psychological assessment.

9/81 – 8/82

Psychology Intern, Veteran's Administration Outpatient Clinic, Los Angeles, California

Individual and group psychotherapy with veterans and their spouses; co-led a Vietnam Veteran's group; biofeedback and stress management training with veterans; diagnostic and neuropsychological (Luria-Nebraska) assessments; intake interviews.

8/79 – 5/81

Therapist, Children's Psychiatric Center, Hialeah, Florida (10 hours a week)

Individual psychotherapy for adolescents; intake interviews for adolescent group; marital and sex therapy; diagnostic evaluations of children and adolescents.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 1/03 – Present      Instructor, Pre-Practicum, University of Miami
This course prepares UM clinical psychology doctoral students to start seeing therapy clients during the following semester. It combines didactic material with supervised practice. Topics include ethics, diversity awareness, basic case conceptualization, diagnosis, and basic interviewing skills
- 9/99 – Present      Case conference, University of Miami Psychological Services Center
Conference for graduate student therapists emphasizing diagnosis, treatment planning, case conceptualization and ethics
- 1/00 – 5/00      Instructor, laboratory section of graduate level Adult Assessment class at University of Miami
Sat in on class discussion and supervised assessments of adult clients
- 9/93 – 8/99      Instructor, Children of Divorcing Parents, Miami-Dade Community College
Seminars for divorcing parents designed to help them understand the emotions children experience in the divorce process
- Summers, 1991 – 1999      Clinical Issues Seminars, University of Miami
Seminars for summer supervises, which focused on case conceptualizations ethical issues, and liability concerns in psychotherapy
- 8/83 – 8/88      Clinical Associate Professor, Fuller Graduate School of Psychology
Pasadena, California
Supervised predoctoral interns at the VA Outpatient Clinic
- 1/81 – 5/81      Instructor, Introductory Psychology, University of Miami
- 8/80 – 12/80      Instructor, Abnormal Psychology, University of Miami
- 8/80 – 12/80      Instructor, Psychology of Women, University of Miami
- 8/79 – 12/79      Instructor, Honors Psychology of Women, University of Miami
- 8/78 – 5/79      Instructor, Honors Introductory Psychology, University of Miami

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE AND PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

- 8/05      Paper presented in symposium at American Psychological Association Convention: "Remediation of Problem Trainees" in R. Heffer (Chair) First Steps: Training for Competence in the Psychology Practicum.
- 1/04 – Present      Participate as an independent assessor in a PTSD treatment study conducted by Gail Ironson and Blanche Freund.
- Spring 2004      Article on "Divorce" in the Sage Encyclopedia of Human Development

- Fall 2003      Reviewer for Division 35 APA convention programs for summer 2004 convention
- 9/03            Member, dissertation committee for Sophie Guellati's dissertation, "Enhanced Benefit Finding in women with Early Stage Breast Cancer."
- 12/97          Member, thesis committee for Jennifer Strauss' thesis, "The Efficacy of Cognitive-Behavioral Bibliotherapy for the Reduction of Depressive Symptoms."
- 8/86 – 8/88    Research project on personality factors in patient compliance with medical regimens
- 8/85            Paper presented in symposium at American Psychological Association convention: "Primary Preventive Medicine" in H. Feifel (chair), New Fashioned Health Roles for the Psychologist.
- 5/80 – 6/81    Doctoral dissertation: "Love Attitudes and Personality Style Among Heterosexual Couples". Chairman: Clyde Hendrick, Ph. D.
- 9/78 – 6/79    Master's thesis: "Multitrait-Multimethod Study of the Validity of the Millon Personality Inventory." Chairman: Theodore Millon, Ph.D.